The 1st House

The 1st House describes you, your self-expression and vitality. It is your physical appearance and the way others see you and interact with you. The 1st House cusp is, in most cases, the Ascendant or Rising Sign of your chart and indicates your primary motivation in life. The house placement of your 1st House ruler, or almuten, shows the areas of life that are of primary importance to you. Also, planets in your 1st House influence how you present yourself to the world.

Ascendant in Libra

Your primary motivation in life is to have freedom of action and movement. You display an attractive personality, with the ability to get along with others. You are co-operative, diplomatic and a natural mediator, with the capability to appreciate differing points of view. You are sociable, engaging and generally popular and well-liked. You need company and prefer to associate with cultured, refined and creative people. You have an aesthetic sense and an appreciation of the arts, coupled with a preference for harmonious and tastefully arranged environments.

The outcome of this house is determined by the placement of its ruler.

1st House Cusp Ruler, Venus, in 2nd House

You realize your primary motivation in life through striving for and achieving secure material circumstances. Financial security is important to you and attainable through your own efforts. You prefer to manage your own finances.

Aspects to Ascendant

Ascendant Square Sun (7°14' A)

You have a strong desire to become important or to gain the esteem of others. You have a knack for attracting the attention of important and even well-known or famous people. You may tend to overwhelm other people with the power of your personality and display pride or egotism. Difficulties may be experienced in your relations with others caused by arrogance or self-glorification.

Ascendant Sextile Moon (2°25' A)

You have natural warmth, coupled with an ability to make others feel at ease in your company. You enjoy good relations with others because you are generally easygoing, obliging and able to adapt to most situations. Women play an important role in your life and you will have many contacts with them.

Ascendant Square Mercury (1°29' S)

You have a keen mind and quite possibly an above average intelligence. You are sharp-witted and alert to what's happening around you; so much so that you rarely miss a trick. A clear communicator, you express yourself lucidly and frankly. Also, you are a good conversationalist because you are curious about what interests others. You are animated and expressive in company and probably talk with your hands. Intellectually, you have a questioning mind, coupled with the capability to form your own opinions and, when sure of your facts, tend to dominate discussions. Negatively, you can have a tendency to be judgmental or overly critical of people whose views contradict your own. You may engage in gossip or rumor mongering. Your personal environment is busy most of the time, which is just as well as you tend to be quite restless and find it nearly impossible to sit still for very long.

Ascendant Sextile Venus (7°59' S)

You have a pleasant and friendly personality that other people find attractive and alluring. You possess physical appeal, a charming nature, sophistication and a good fashion sense; all of which favor you socially. You may have artistic talents; you will certainly have an appreciation of the arts and culture. You have good taste and an eye for style and design.

Ascendant Square Mars (6°34' A)

A strong character, you express an assertive and, occasionally, forceful personality towards others in the environment. Your manner is direct and frank. You are ambitious for recognition and achieve successes through your own efforts and self-motivation. You are a good organizer and like being in charge of situations. Giving orders or instructions to others comes naturally to you. You face life's battles head-on and are rarely daunted by much at all. Negatively, you can be pushy, argumentative and prepared to resort to bullying tactics to get your own way. Also, a tendency to rush into things without considering the consequences can place you in awkward situations. Patience isn't one of your strongest traits.

Ascendant Sextile Saturn (3°49' S)

This aspect tends to bring out the best attributes of Saturn. You present a sober and responsible face to the world and other people know they can rely on you to be as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar. You learn from experience and gladly pass on what you know to those who will benefit from it. A hard worker, you like to see concrete results for your efforts and don't mind putting up with short-term pains for long-term gains.

Ascendant Conjunct Neptune (0°10' A)

You present a somewhat dreamy and otherworldly appearance or manner to other people. You sometimes seem to be floating on air or living in your own world. This particular conjunction is often found in the charts of creative individuals, such as artists and musicians or people who are highly attuned to the inner or spiritual aspects of life. However, it is also present in the horoscopes of those who are susceptible to stimulants or deceivers and cheats.

Ascendant Sextile Pluto (2°06' A)

You have the ability to lead others and to subtly get people to do as you wish, usually through gentle but firm persuasion. Other people are attracted to you because you have an irresistible magnetism. You will win friends and influence people because you respect power and know not to abuse it.

Ascendant Trine Moon's North Node (0°36' A)

You have the ability to get along well with others in your personal environment and family circle. You are tuned into the needs of others. A friendly and adaptable attitude will win you any number of friends.

Neptune in 1st House

You tend to radiate a dream-like quality that draws others to you. You are highly receptive to environmental influences and other people. Positively, you have a keen imagination, intuitive and creative gifts, coupled with the power of inspiration. In contrast, care is necessary with intoxicants, as these can over-stimulate your nervous system. You can expose yourself to exploitation by others by being too yielding or impressionable.

Neptune in Libra

You are a member of a generation that tends to idealize romantic love and marriage. There is the potential for unrealistic expectations in relationships, which can lead to let-downs or disappointments. You have a high sensitivity to beauty and refinement, coupled with an appreciation of the arts.

Aspects to Neptune

Neptune Square Sun (7°04' S)

You are highly sensitive and impressionable. You have a tendency to be easily swayed by others; are prone to seducing influences and susceptible to intoxicants and stimulants. While you may be inspired with the best of intentions and ideals, you often lack the power and motivation to bring them to realization. Equally, you may be prone to recycling periods of low vitality and physical weakness. There is a susceptibility to self-deception and seducing influences that can lead to scandals. Your father may be an unknown quantity to you, or even absent. Positively, you may have spiritual inclinations, coupled with a fascination for metaphysical or esoteric subjects. Your inner life is very active, and mystical or psychic experiences are not unfamiliar to you. You have compassion and an ability to feel and understand the needs of others with sympathy and empathy. You may be gifted with a measure of inspiration and creativity, which may express itself through the arts - especially music, painting, photography or drama.

Neptune Sextile Moon (2°15' S)

You are highly perceptive and sensitive to influences around you and able to pick up on the feelings of others and the mood of the environment. Your empathic manner attracts others to you and you know how to comfort and heal those in need. You tend to have an idealistic outlook on life and can be quite dreamy at times and content to just go with the flow. You are easily inspired and have a vivid imagination with the ability to tap into a wide range of creative talents, including music, poetry, painting and photography. Your dream-life is also likely to be active. You may possess psychic sensitivity.

Neptune Square Mercury (1°39' A)

You are highly intuitive and perceptive and seem to instinctively know what others may be thinking. You have an interest in metaphysical subjects and may even experience spiritual or psychic phenomena. Alternatively, your thinking can be confused or uncertain and you may experience difficulties making important decisions or communicating clearly to others. Possibly, you could be prone to self-deception or inclined to avoid facing uncomfortable realities. In certain circumstances, you can be scheming and insincere.

Neptune Square Mars (6°24' S)

The main challenge of this aspect is to discover how to channel your energies most effectively. This is difficult because Neptune tends to undermine Mars' ability to act by dissipating its power, or causing it to express itself in a chaotic or immoral way. Physically, the body's defenses can be weakened causing a susceptibility to infections and viruses. On a more uplifting note, this aspect is often found in the charts of spiritual aspirants who direct their energies towards the higher good. For creative people, this pairing can produce talents in music, visual arts, theater, film, photography or fashion. Physical exercise such as swimming, water sports, Yoga or Tai Chi may appeal to you.

Neptune Sextile Saturn (3°59' S)

You have great patience and instinctively know what is possible and what isn't; consequently you succeed where others don't. Spiritual values are more important to you than material success, because you recognize that the latter doesn't provide lasting satisfaction. You have a deep desire to help those in need.

Neptune Trine Uranus (7°51' A)

The aspects between the so-called generational planets cause effects that are more collective than individual. On a personal level, you are someone who has an interest in gaining spiritual understanding. You may be psychically gifted, if other factors in your horoscope support this.

Neptune Sextile Pluto (1°56' A)

Neptune and Pluto are the solar system's slowest moving planets; consequently aspects between them last for a great number of years and their effects are less personal than collective. Since 1940 and continuing until about 2040 they are in sextile aspect to each other. The major effect of this is to accentuate spiritual awareness and development en masse. You are part of a generation that is intent on exploring and refining the inner aspect of life and consciousness itself. You will be aware of a universal interest in metaphysical subjects, clairvoyance and psychical research.

Neptune Trine Moon's North Node (0°26' A)

You tend to form sensitive and emotional relationships with others. You have a compassionate nature and the capability to empathize with other people and sense their needs. You may associate with creative and artistic people and share an appreciation of the arts, music and spiritual subjects.

Neptune Square Midheaven (3°05' S)

You have a lot of uncertainty and confusion about your purpose and direction in life. Professional recognition is hard, but not impossible, to realize. There will be many periods in your life when you question what you're doing and where you're going. You have healing abilities and a readiness to help; however you need to take care that you are not taken advantage of or exploited. You are best suited to working in fields that rely on creating illusions, such as photography, fashion, acting, writing, music, films or television. You benefit from adopting a spiritual discipline or religion. Your domestic situation is often tenuous and insecure.

The 2nd House is associated with personal assets and financial affairs. It governs all moveable possessions and wealth.

2nd House Cusp in Scorpio

To you, money is power. You tend to be secretive about your finances and maintain the opinion that one's financial affairs are one's own private concern. You prefer to control your own wealth, so it is likely that others will never really know how much you are really worth.

The outcome of this house is determined by the placement of its ruler.

The Qualities and Elements

The signs of the zodiac are grouped into two basic categories. These are known as the Qualities and the Elements. The Qualities describe fundamental modes of activity and the Elements describe temperament. There are three Qualities: Cardinal, Fixed & Mutable and four Elements: Fire, Air, Earth & Water. Your horoscope has varying degrees of each Quality and Element. The percentages you have of each will determine their importance in your life. The higher percentages will be more powerful in your life, the lower percentages will be less powerful.

The Qualities
